

Self-assessment

Are these strategies emerging, partly in place, or established in your practice?

Illustrate your response with examples from your own teaching.

- ✓ Students understand their next academic and behavioural learning steps.
- ✓ Students are helped to set goals and to monitor their progress towards them.
- ✓ Consider a variety of elements when offering choices (for example, order, materials, partners, location, and type of task).
- ✓ Ensure students understand what each option involves and teach them how to make good choices.
- ✓ Provide a range of ways that students can express their understanding of key ideas and demonstrate their skills.
- ✓ Support students who have difficulty with tasks through scaffolds such as writing frames and sentence starters.
- ✓ Use digital supports to engage and motivate students to express their ideas.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

---

