

Headaches and eye problems

Headaches and eye problems are very common after a brain injury.

Headaches can be caused by tiredness, excessive noise, or periods of concentration.

Eye problems are usually the result of the brain not working as well as usual. Some children find that bright light hurts them, and that it helps to wear sunglasses, even indoors.

Sight is sometimes a little blurred, either because the eyes are not focusing well, or because they are not lining up correctly.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
