Support clear shared goals

Benefits of professionals and whānau taking a coordinated approach include:

- ✓ increased opportunities to work on rehabilitation goals across the contexts of both home and school
- ✓ all supporting adults are working towards the same goals and aligning advice.
- ✓ relieves parents, whānau and caregivers of the responsibility of having to be the translator and messenger between multiple people and agencies.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

