Review all information

Build your understanding about what support your learners need by reviewing information about their learning and wellbeing.

Information from both formal and informal sources is valued and may include:

- learning support registers
- student and whānau surveys
- focus groups and interviews
- anecdotal conversations
- learning stories and case studies
- data from inquiry projects
- records of requests for support from the Ministry of Education and Resource Teachers
- Interim Response Fund (IRF) usage
- attendance, stand-down, suspension, and exclusion data
- teacher observations.
