

Connect frequently in real time

Effective collaboration is characterised by dense, frequent sharing of knowledge among participants, with the aim of addressing the identified challenges.

Members of highly effective groups interact frequently among themselves, focusing on refining and consolidating professional practice.

They also connect outwards to gain new knowledge that will complement what they already know and to maintain connections with, and participate in, larger networks.

Collaborative inquiry and working that challenges thinking and practice

Source:
Education Review Office

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
