

Checking progress reflection questions

Have you made enough of a difference for all your children and young people?

Consider the following questions:

- what do ākonga tell you?
- what do parents and whānau tell you?
- what does the data tell you?
- Are any voices or perspectives missing? How can you make connections?

Data – go back to earlier data sources.

Note: Checking is essential; find appropriate tools and check the impact on marginalised groups.
