

Selecting a programme or PLD

Before purchasing a programme or PLD, ensure it is based on well-researched principles.

Use these questions to help your selection.

Is the programme:

- systematic – based on the 44 sounds and spelling rules of the English language and can be taught with consistency by different teachers?
- cumulative – builds on previous learning to ensure a strong foundation?
- structured – beginning with simple concepts progressing to more complex ones?
- sequential – meeting children at their current level with an ordered progress?

Does it cover:

- phonological awareness?
- phonics and decoding?
- fluency?
- vocabulary?
- comprehension?

How will it impact teaching staff? Consider:

- how much training is required
- what supports are provided
- how much teacher preparation is required
- what resources are needed
- whether teacher aides or volunteers can be part of the programme.

What is needed for schoolwide implementation?

- How much initial and ongoing training is required?
- Who can participate in the training sessions?
- What resources are needed?
- What is the cost?

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.

