

Teach and practise social skills

Give students multiple opportunities to learn how to act in given social contexts.

- ✓ Explicitly teach non-verbal communication strategies, such as eye contact, facial expressions and body language.
- ✓ Explicitly teach skills associated with social interactions, such as joining a group, taking part in two-way conversations, and reading non-verbal cues.
- ✓ Practise skills using role plays, scenarios and turn-taking games.
- ✓ Reduce social demands in learning activities by giving options for smaller groups or independent work.
- ✓ Build a supportive peer group.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
