Useful resources

Promoting collaborative learning cultures

In this article, Michael Fullan's idea of "purposeful peer interaction" is explained. This is where information and knowledge are shared openly, and when monitoring mechanisms are installed to detect ineffective actions and identify effective practices.

Publisher: Educational Leaders

Visit website

Gary Punler: Deprivatising practice

In this video, Principal Gary Punler describes why is it important for schools to have a process in place to facilitate teachers meeting and sharing ideas.

Visit website

Networks of Expertise

List of subject associations and other peer-to-peer networks which support teachers and kaiako.

Visit website

Regionally-allocated PLD

How to apply for PLD funding for your school, kura, kāhui ako or cluster. Allocation decisions are made by regional allocation panels.

Visit website

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.