Visit the new space regularly

- ✓ Arrange for students to visit the new spaces on several occasions before moving in.
- ✓ Show photographs or videos of the new spaces and talk about what will happen in them.
- ✓ Prepare a scrapbook on the new space for students to familiarise themselves with how it looks, and where they can work in the space.
- ✓ Discuss any concerns the students may have about the move and address these directly.
- ✓ Use social stories to practice routines, systems, and ways of working.
- ✓ Visit locations in the new space that may be different to the current classroom space (for example, work spaces, the gymnasium, the cloakroom).

Practise routines prior to moving

Lucy Fong explains how they trialled different uses of space by converting single classrooms, prior to building their new flexible learning spaces.
