Utilise rhyme and repetition

Chant and repeat familiar stories, songs and rhymes to give students frequent opportunities to deepen their understanding and become familiar with language patterns and features. This is especially useful for developing self-confidence for students with speech, language and communication difficulties.

Use recommended writing approaches

Examples of recommended activities to support writing.

- ✓ Support a student by providing a scribe or using speech-to-text so they can communicate their ideas effectively.
- ✓ Use a recording device to record ideas orally.
- ✓ Use planning tools and strategies such as brainstorming and mind maps.
- ✓ Use storyboards to organise ideas and provide a structure.
- ✓ Use images and word or blends charts to support vocabulary.
- ✓ Use a checklist to focus on sentence structure or grammar.
