

Understand what matters

Te Whānau: Respond to ākonga Māori within the context of their whānau.

Actions we can take.

Our kaiako:

- know me as an individual, and how I am part of my whānau, hapū, iwi, and community
- treat me, my peers and our whānau fairly and with respect
- respect our culture
- pronounce Māori names well, if not perfectly
- know about the local tikanga
- use te reo Māori as they teach, in hui and in events and encourage us to speak Māori if we want
- make space for us to bring our Māori knowledge to planning and problem solving
- know the value of interdependence. The power of the collective and working together.

This information was downloaded/printed from the Ministry of Education's website "Inclusive Education". Except where otherwise noted it is Crown Copyright 2018.

Information on the Inclusive Education website is regularly updated so we recommend you check the website version of this information to ensure it remains current.
